

WHAT WE DO

Sigma II is a diverse agency that specializes in the sale and managing of Group Benefits, yet our team is also qualified in the Executive and Individual market. You will also find Sigma II in the forefront of employee wellness. Treating all our clients with equal importance, our customer-oriented approach remains consistent regardless of client size or need.

GROUP AND ANCILLARY BENEFITS

Group benefits provided through an employer become major components to everyone's financial security. Ancillary packages can make the workplace more competitive and desirable. In spite of this reality, employers rank the challenge of controlling healthcare and ancillary benefits as one of their most serious financial considerations. Such challenges require an agency that prioritizes this concern. Our innovative account managers and their team of benefit specialists can meet the administrative demands of these current concerns.

INDIVIDUAL HEALTH INSURANCE

Comprehensive, convenient coverage with more choices, more flexibility, and more for you and your family.

Sigma's Sales Executives bring years of experience to our individual clients. We will structure the coverage, and tailor it to your specific needs. Our Individual department is dedicated to providing you with the information you need and the support you want. With over 25 different carriers we will find the right one for you.

WHO WE ARE

Sigma II Benefit Consultants began in 1988. The company was founded on the premise to always put the best interest of the client first and continue as their advocate.

This philosophy has allowed Sigma II to develop into one of Cleveland's top 10 employee benefit firms that remains privately owned. Our professional staff manages over 400 Northeast Ohio Companies and includes five states. Whether two employees or 2000, we are dedicated to the needs of each client.

OUR FUTURE

The dynamics of healthcare is both challenging and fascinating. Social, economic and political influences may have a tremendous impact on the healthcare industry. Adaptation and ingenuity is the key to keeping up with these challenges.

Sigma II remains committed to our clients, adapting and competing for the employer and ultimately the employee. Our services meet the demands of the industry and promote our excellence. As a Sigma II client you are awarded commitment, broker expertise, account representation and wellness consulting.

COMMITMENT

Sigma II continually strives to incorporate all aspects of an employee benefit package.

We remain committed to meet the select needs of each client.

We define our clients as the employers we work with and each of their employees.
